

Thinking about biodiversity actions across a landscape

The diagram shows 3 main biodiversity goals your catchment could strive for and then the smaller bubbles show all of the actions you could take in a landscape in order to work towards these bigger goals. Now using the cards provided read each one aloud as a team to learn about each of the actions and tick the each of them as you go along.

